

2004

everything ain't everything... (RARB Pick of '05)

1. Waiting
2. All my loving
3. Harlem Nocturne
4. Why do fools fall in love
5. Fever
6. Du Bon Son
7. Sometimes it snows in April
8. I wish
9. Father, Son

"American vocal jazz apparently lives in Europe now. Germany's Stouxingers have come sizzling out of the Manhattan Transfer tradition with a verve I haven't heard from an American group in years. The songs are hot, the blend locks and the solos are superb." (Rebecca Christie, RARB Reviewer)

"If you like your music highly nuanced and slightly adorned, Stouxingers' Everything Ain't Everything is the jazz/pop album to get. They describe themselves as an emotional and groovy a cappella delight. I couldn't have put it in better terms myself." (Thomas King, RARB Reviewer)

"Looking at the track list one would expect variety for variety's sake, but the group stays true to its "sound" throughout the disc." (Mark Manley, RARB Reviewer)

Further details at www.rarb.org (<http://www.rarb.org/reviews/528.html>)